

City of Milton
Proclamation
Youth Art Day in the City of Milton

WHEREAS, the City of Milton recognizes the value of children in our great City, and the colorful artwork they do helps both entertain and beautify everything from our school hallways, to family refrigerators and

WHEREAS, the youth of our community and their development of skill sets in the arts are of critical importance to the future of our great City; and

WHEREAS, the ability to inspire the youth of Milton through creativity and artistic experiences adds value to their education, the development of their skill sets, and as important, helps add value to our City with the artwork they complete, and

WHEREAS, artwork provides an opportunity for youth, and people of all ages to express themselves, and

WHEREAS, youth artwork adds both a sense of community value and pride taken in the both the creativity and work completed and on display by our City's youth. Youth artwork on display throughout the City of Milton adds to our community's sense of character and proud history, and that creativity and beauty created by youth artwork adds to the value of living, working or visiting our great City and

WHEREAS, the youth artwork is something for which all parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles, friends and family and all City of Milton residents and business owners can be proud of,

WHEREAS, artwork created by our youth will be on display at the Milton House through Sunday, March 30,

I, Brett J. Frazier, Mayor of the City of Milton and in celebration of the young artists of our community, proclaim Thursday, March 27 through Sunday, March 30, 2014 as Youth Art Days in the City of Milton.

THEREFORE, LET IT BE KNOWN that Thursday, March 27 through Sunday, March 30, 2014 is Youth Art Days

Signed this 25th day of March, 2014.

Brett Frazier, Mayor

Attest:
Michelle Ebbert City Clerk